

C H A P.
XVI.Books to be delivered, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all the books, memorandums and entries, of the said sheriff, and his deputies, in which his accounts as sheriff and collector are stated and kept, shall be delivered by James O'Bryon, junior, his administrator, to the said securities, or a majority of them, on demand, and shall be deposited in the hands of John Caradine, or such person as the securities may direct, in Centreville, to be freely inspected and examined, without cost or charges, by any person or persons who shall apply for that purpose, in order to ascertain any payments that may have been made upon his, her or their account; and provided also, that the said James O'Bryon, junior, before he shall deliver the said books, memorandums and entries, to the said securities, or a majority of them, shall make oath, before a justice of the peace for Queen-Anne's county, that he the said James O'Bryon, junior, as administrator of the said Thomas O'Bryon, hath not, directly or indirectly, received any part or parcel of the money or tobacco which was due and payable to the said Thomas O'Bryon, as sheriff and collector of Queen-Anne's county, nor any security or satisfaction for the same, more than he has credited in the said books.

Commission allowed, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said securities, and the survivors of them, shall have the same commission on the collection aforesaid as the said sheriff would have been entitled to, and that all arrearages collected in virtue of this act shall be fairly applied to the discharge of the sums due by the securities for the respective years in which the said arrearages ought by law to have been collected.

Not to take away remedies, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to take away or deprive the respective debtors for taxes, other public dues and officers fees, of the same remedies which they had against the original sheriff and collector, in cases where nothing is alleged to be due, or the distress or execution are illegally conducted, but the same shall exist in full force and virtue against the said securities, and each of them.

C H A P. XVII.

An ACT for establishing a company for opening and extending the navigation of the river Pocomoke.

Passed December 30.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the extension of the navigation of Pocomoke river from Snow-Hill to Mitchell's Bridge, and also as far as the division line of the states of Maryland and Delaware, will be of great public utility, and many persons are willing to subscribe large sums of money to effect so laudable and beneficial a work, and it being just and proper that they, their heirs and assigns, should be empowered to receive, by way of toll, satisfaction for the money advanced by them in carrying the work into execution, and the risk they run; therefore,

Books to be opened, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful to open books in Baltimore-town, the city of Annapolis, Georgetown, Easton, Chester-town, Cambridge, Princess-Anne-town, Snow-Hill-town, Elkton, Centreville, Salisbury, Denton, and a place called The Trap, in Worcester county, for receiving and entering subscriptions for the said undertaking, under the management of David M'Mechen, Alexander M'Kim and Thorowgood Smith, or either of them, at Baltimore-town; Benjamin Harwood and James Thomas, or either of them, at the city of Annapolis; William Hammond Dorsey, Gustavus Scott and Daniel Reintzel, or either of them, at Georgetown; David Kerr and John Erskine, or either of them, at Easton; William Barroll and William Spencer, or either of them, at Chester-town; Josiah Bayly and William Bond Martin, or either of them, at Cambridge; William Done and Ezekiel Haynie, or either of them, at Princess-Anne-town; Samuel Handy and Levin Handy, or either of them, at Snow-Hill-town; Lemuel Purnell and William H. Nicholson, or either of them, at Centreville; Levi Hollingsworth and William Moore, or either of them, at Elkton; Peter Dashiell and William Gantt, or either of them, at Salisbury; Joshua Driver and Thomas Boone, or either of them, at Denton; and John P. Marshall and Stephen Purnell, or either